State diagram for database register with system Admin login id and password Check login id and if not correct invalid login id or password password if correct login successful updating login credentials updating products entry/login successful entry/login succesful do/manager can update password or create new password do/manager can update products exit/manager can logout exit/logout manager logout remove products entry/updating products add products do/delete products exit/manager can logout entry/updating products do/add products exit/manager can logout